Preface:

I want to start by saying that I encourage "Fact Checking" regarding every word in this book.

I was first introduced to this topic by the 20th. century research done by a brillant economist and Stanford University scholar, Antony C. Sutton.

The contents of this book, imo, very quickly forces the Reader into a choice; whether to choose:

A: "The Truth will Set You Free", and think about and verify the shocking historical facts presented or

B: "Ignorance is bliss" and just ignore or rationalize way the facts contained herein.

You may be surprised how many choose the latter.

Every word in this book is a historically verified fact, even though they require an open and critical thinking minded Reader to accept the outrageous reality of their contents.

This book contains over 30 years of research I have done on this topic. The engineering of wars, as revealed here for the first time, exposes a level of diabolical multi-generational evil, political control and psychopathy which few of us can even imagine.

Russell is the most important and impactful American who ever lived.....and you likely never heard of him.

That mere fact tells us a lot about the secrecy of the cult and their media control (e.g. Henry Luce, who founded Time, Life, Fortune, and Sports Illustrated magazine, was a member of Skull and Bones ). Here is what you did not know about William Huntington Russell:

William H. Russell was the founder of Skull and Bones.
William H. Russell was the founder of the Republican Party and Lincoln's #1 promoter.
Russell financed John Brown's terrorists and continued on to engineer the U.S. Civil War. Brown even appointed Russell as executor of Brown's will.
Russell's money came from his family's opium trafficking business which was managed by his cousin, Samuel Russell, the biggest opium trader of the 1800s who ruined the country of China by addicting so many Chinese people with the opium he dumped there.

Skull and Bones is a cult that members enter into at the age of 21 and a cult which they work within for the rest of their lives. They conspire and use their authorities to engineer wars and dumb down the American people, e.g. through an intentionally degraded public education system. (Leaving good education for only the super rich; they have created a Prussian society (no middle class) in America.)

The mistake most Americans make is to assume these elites have the best interests of America at heart and when they make decisions which are bad for America, most of us assume they just messed up or are stupid. That's what they want you to think. For Example, many people thing George W. Bush is not very bright and that explains why he thought Iraq had WMDs. That's simply not true. W. has always been exceptionally bright. He graduated from Yale majoring in History and then went on to get an MBA at Harvard; all without studying very hard. How many other people do you know who are smart enough to have done that? Its much more reasonable to believe that he was well aware that Iraq posed no threat to the USA and that he had other reasons for invading Iraq.

Reasons which he chose not to share with us, the American people.

Why would he not tell the American people the real reasons and present a false, contrived explanation? Usually when someone hides the truth of their motives its because their motives are not acceptable or in the best interests of those whom they are hiding it from.

His reasons certainly had nothing to do with the best interests of the American people and certainly not the best interests of the 4,000 American troops he sent to their death in Iraq. He is personally responsible for more Americans being killed than the bastards who attacked us on 9/11.

Yet he was re-elected to a second term as President and today, in 2020, he is admired by many Americans and respected by almost all Americans.

No, George W. Bush is not stupid or someone who makes stupid mistakes in judgment.

Quite the opposite is what the facts indicate.

on The Worldwide Threat in 2000:
Global Realities of Our National Security

- Explosive growth in Afghan opium production is being driven by the shared interests of traditional traffickers and the Taliban. And as with so many of these cross-national issues, Mr. Chairman, what concerns me most is the way the threats become intertwined. In this case, there is ample evidence that Islamic extremists such as Usama Bin Ladin use profits from the drug trade to support their terror campaign.

and below we see how the Bush and Kerry led Nato allowed Afghan opium production to skyrocket 50 fold from 2001 to 2017.

Bush Will Not Stop Afghan Opium Trade

Charles R. Smith
Thursday, March 28, 2002

The Bush administration has decided not to destroy the opium crop in Afghanistan. President Bush, who previously linked the Afghan drug trade directly to terrorism, has now decided not to destroy the Afghan opium crop.

"The war in Afghanistan will be decided within the next six weeks based on whether or not the poppy crops go to market," stated a U.S. intelligence official who recently returned from Afghanistan.

The source, who requested that he not be identified, noted that the opium poppy fields are blooming and ready for harvest. U.S. forces could destroy the crops using aerial spraying techniques, but no such actions are planned.

"If the estimated 3,000 tons of opium reaches market, it will lead to a new upsurge in international terrorism and a great loss in international credibility for the Bush administration and the United States' ability to conduct war in the 21st century. America's enemies throughout the world from China to North Korea to Iran will be emboldened by this lack of strategic vision and political will," said the source.

As we can see below from the BBC and United Nations' charts, President Bush's decision, above, had the immediate effect to dramatically increase the amount of Terrorism financing flowing from Afghanistan opium.

Afghanistan retakes heroin crown

Afghanistan retook its place as the world's leading producer of heroin last year, after US-led forces overthrew the Taleban which had banned cultivation of opium poppies.

Production has surged since the end of the Taliban regime

The finding was made in a key drug report, distributed in Kabul on Sunday by the US State Department, which supports almost identical findings by the United Nations last week.

Click the link below to read the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime Report. Find out the shocking facts about the Afghan opium debacle, which was created and maintained by Skull and Bones cult members to finance the terrorist enemies; thus ensuring continuation of wars, war profiteering, and the march towards the geopolitical future these Skull and Bones cult members want for the world.

https://www.unodc.org/documents/crop-monitoring/Afghanistan/Afghan_opium_survey_2017_cult_prod_ web.pdf

John Kerry, initiated into S&B in 1966:

Kerry, as past Chairman of the U.S.A.'s Foreign Relations Committee and Secretary of State, controlled U.S.A's foreign policies; policies such as allowing afghan opium production to skyrocket from 135 tons in 2001 (before U.S.A. forces went in) to 9,000 tons in 2017 (source UNODC). Every western intelligence service is on the record stating that afghan opium trafficking is the primary source of funding for both al-Queda and the Taliban, meaning that John Kerry is facilitating the flow of billions of dollars to America's enemies; money which is used for the weapons and bombs which kill and injure American troops and launch attacks like 9/11. This is only the most recent way that Skull and Bones cult members finance America's (and Israel's) enemies to perpetuate wars ( for a war to continue, the enemy needs a steady source of funding). Every thinking person knows those wide open opium fields could be plowed up,burned up, or blown up; or at least the opium could be bought up; but Kerry and his Pentagon people ordered that none of those 4 actions are to be taken. Why would these traitors want to perpetuate wars? Because they profit from them and the wars move the world ever closer to a centralized New World Order which they will control much like the way the people of China are controlled by a small central committee.

The CIA, the DEA, U.S. Generals and members of the U.S. Congress are all on record as saying that this very same opium growing freely in the wide open opium fields of Afghanistan is the number one source of financing for al-Queda and the Taliban.

So, President Bush and the Chairman of Foreign Relations Committe and later the Secretary of State Kerry, who have been allowing the Afghan opium to freely grow and finance the terrorists for 17 years, are guilty of High Treason and should be locked up forthwith.

According to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime, in 2017 Afghanistan produced 9,000 metric tonnes of opium, 92% of the entire world's supply. In 2001, before U.S. led troops went into Afghanistan, Afghanistan's production was 185 metric tonnes. No, these are not typos, since NATO went into Afghanistan, Afghan opium production, the primary financing vehicle for both al-Queda and the Taliban, has increased 50 fold (5,000%).

Its not rocket science. NATO could easily stop that dope from reaching our enemies. NATO could buy it up, plow it up,burn it up, or blow it up. Or U.S. forces could spray the opium fields with herbicide just as they spray the coca fields in South America.

But NATO policy is to leave it alone. And who determines NATO policy? A handful of American politicians, led by Skull and Bones cult members like President George W. Bush and the Chairman of the U.S. Foreign Relations Committee and Secretary of State, John Kerry. This book provides factual information to you that you have likely never been shown before; even if you are an avid reader of U.S. News articles and/or a Fox or CNN News watcher.

The reason you have never read about these facts before is that American news media has, over the past 2 decades, become primarily a provider of sound bites, entertainment, and spoon-fed government sourced propaganda suitable for people with a child's level of intellect or education. When U.S. media has covered this story, it has been very superficially and without any comprehensive analysis.

**********

Who's Been In Charge for the Past 21 Years?

A tiny handful of U.S. politicans like George W. Bush and John Kerry; the ones who control U.S. foreign policy and the ones who control U.S. military operations (which includes NATO).

Don't blame the Pentagon or U.S. Generals. They are all subordinate to the wishes of the President and U.S. Foreign Relations Policy (set by the Foreign Relations Committee and the Secretary of State )

NATO's 2 Supreme Allied Commanders are always U.S. Generals (this actually makes sense because America contributes more money and troops to NATO operations than all the other countries combined ). They are responsible to U.S. politicians like John Kerry, who dictate the U.S. policy of allowing Afghanistan opium to grow freely; which is proven in spades by the 61% increase in production in 2011 from 2010.

From 2002 until 2008, it was Skull and Bones President George W. Bush who created and implemented this same "let it grow" policy.

Skull and Boners John Kerry and George W. Bush have been NATO's primary controllers over the past 20 years and have knowingly facilitated approximately 200 billion dollars of opium trafficking profits getting into the hands of the same bastards who attacked America on 9/11 and are killing and wounding our troops in Afghanistan. Those billions are the money which pays for the RPGs, bombs and other weapons that target American and other NATO troops. The Afghan Opium Debacle is the elephant in the closet that John Kerry and George W. Bush will not and would not talk about, nor allow any questions to be asked about.

On October 11th. 2011, the U.N. Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC ) released their 2011 report and it shows a 61% increase in Afghan Opium Production in 2011 from 2010.

5,800 metric tonnes in 2011 and 3,600 metric tonnes in 2010.

The UNODC Afghan Opium Assessments are put out several times per year,

NATO soldiers were ordered not to interfere with opium production in Afghanistan while knowing full well that opium paid for the weapons that were used to kill and wound their Brothers in Arms and perhaps themselves.

Our NATO troops knew exactly what is going on; and they found it insulting

and humiliating.

Incredibly, NATO soldiers were under orders not to interfere at all with the growing and harvesting of the primary source of terrorist financing, Afghanistan opium.

Chapter 2: Three undisputed facts

There are 3 undisputed facts which prove that NATO's real controllers, like the New World Order's poster boy, Skull and Boner John Kerry, wanted NATO to not win in Afghanistan in order to continue and expand (into Pakistan and Iran) conflict; eventually leading to a centralized global government (New World Order) modeled after the current Chinese government.

The opium is necessary for their purposes because in order for our enemies (Taliban/al-Queda ) to stay in the fight, they need a steady source of funding. And these American Traitors, ( Bush, Kerry etc.),want the wars to continue and expand, eventually leading to a one world government which they and their pals ( Middle East Oil Shieks, Chinese Communist Leaders, the largest Corporations ) and the wealthiest 1/10th of 1% of the world's people, will control. The rest of the world's peoples will be politically and economically neutered and financially enslaved; just look at Red China ( yes, they are still communist, although our constant brainwashing has made most of us forget that little fact ) today. That is the exact type of society America and the rest of the world is heading towards !

FACT #1 : In 2001, before the USA and NATO went in, Afghanistan produced 1/35, that's right, one thirty-fifth, as much opium as it did in 2009.
Annual Production went from 185 metric tons in 2001 (Source: United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime 2001 Survey- page 4)
http://www.unodc.org/pdf/publications/report_2001-10-16_1.pdf
to 6,900 metric tons in 2009: (Source United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime 2009 Survey- page 5)
http://www.unodc.org/documents/crop-monitoring/Afghanistan/Afghanistan_opium_survey_2009_summary.pdf

FACT#2 : Every single western intelligence agency is on record as saying that both the Taliban and al-Queda get most of their war financing from Afghan opium trafficking. In other words, that opium provides money which pays for the bombs and bullets which kill and injure our troops as well as pays for terrorist attacks like 9/11. And this is nothing new: just look at this testimony of the CIA Director 22 years ago to the U.S. Senate; "there is ample evidence that Islamic extremists such as Usama Bin Ladin use profits from the drug trade to support their terror campaigns."

FACT#3:Anyone who does not think that NATO could keep that opium out of our enemies' hands, is truly naive;

NATO could have sprayed it with herbicides, just as they have done with Coca in South America, or NATO could:

1: buy it up or

2: plow it up,

Chapter 3: The George H.W. Bush Wars

George H.W. Bush: Initiated into Skull and Bones in 1948.

First as CIA Director and then as Vice President, throughout the 1980s GHW created, germinated and financed islamic terrorism by supporting bin Laden and the mujahadeen in Afghanistan. GHW also supported and financed Saddam in the 1980s.

[Congressional Record: January 26, 2011 (House)]

HOW THE 20-YEAR WAR STARTED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Texas (Mr. PAUL) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. PAUL. Mr. Speaker, how did the 20-year war get started? It had been long assumed that the United States Government, shortly before Iraq invaded Kuwait in August of 1990, gave Saddam Hussein a green light to attack. A State Department cable recently published by WikiLeaks confirmed that U.S. Ambassador April Glaspie did indeed have a conversation with Saddam Hussein one week prior to Iraq's August 1, 1990, invasion of Kuwait. Amazingly, the released cable was entitled, "Saddam's Message of Friendship to President Bush." In it, Ambassador Glaspie affirmed to Saddam that "the President had instructed her to broaden and deepen our relations with Iraq." As Saddam Hussein outlined Iraq's ongoing border dispute with Kuwait, Ambassador Glaspie was quite clear that, "we took no position on these Arab affairs."

There would have been no reason for Saddam Hussein not to take this assurance at face value. The U.S. was quite supportive of his invasion and war of aggression against Iran in the 1980s. With this approval from the U.S. Government, it wasn't surprising that the invasion occurred. The shock and surprise was how quickly the tables were turned and our friend, Saddam Hussein, all of a sudden became Hitler personified.

The document was classified, supposedly to protect national security, yet this information in no way jeopardized our security. Instead, it served to keep the truth from the American people about an event leading up to our initial military involvement in Iraq and the region that continues to today.

The secrecy of the memo was designed to hide the truth from the American people and keep our government from being embarrassed.

This was the initial event that had led to so much death and destruction—not to mention the financial costs—these past 20 years. Our response and persistent militarism toward Iraq was directly related to 9/11, as our presence on the Arabian Peninsula—and in particular Saudi Arabia—was listed by al Qaeda as a major grievance that outraged the radicals who carried out the heinous attacks against New York and Washington on that fateful day.

Today, the conflict has spread through the Middle East and Central Asia with no end in sight.

The reason this information is so important is that if Congress and the American people had known about this green light incident 20 years ago, they would have been a lot more reluctant to give a green light to our government to pursue the current war—a war that is ongoing and expanding to this very day.

The tough question that remains is was this done deliberately to create the justification to redesign the Middle East, as many neo-conservatives desired, and to secure oil supplies for the West; or was it just a diplomatic blunder followed up by many more strategic military blunders? Regardless, we have blundered into a war that no one seems willing to end.

Julian Assange, the publisher of the WikiLeaks memo, is now considered an enemy of the state. Politicians are calling for drastic punishment and even assassination; and, sadly, the majority of the American people seem to support such moves.

But why should we so fear the truth? Why should our government's lies and mistakes be hidden from the American people in the name of patriotism? Once it becomes acceptable to equate truth with treason, we can no longer call ourselves a free society.

As President, Bush tricked/double crossed ( an admired trait among the cult symbolized by the crossed bones in their logo ) Saddam Husein into attacking Kuwait ( Bush sent U.S. ambassador, April Glaspie to assure Saddam that the U.S. would not interfere; "We have no opinion on your Arab-Arab conflicts, such as your dispute with Kuwait" from the official transcript of Glaspie's meeting on July 25th 1990 with Saddam.)

Bush then double-crossed Saddam and engaged America in an unending, ambiguous and vague "war against terror". The following year GHW made his now infamous "New World Order" speech to congress on March 6,1991; "this new world order cannot guarantee an era of perpetual peace."

GHW's next step was to establish a large U.S. military base on Islamic holy land in Saudi Arabia, which, predictably, turned bin Laden's group into an enraged enemy of the U.S.A..

GHW Bush still demanded to see classified CIA documents; the first president to do that after leaving office. He loaded up on defence stocks BEFORE 9/11, and ON September 11,2001, GHW was actually at a meeting with Osama's brother,Salem.

George W. Bush: initiated into Skull and Bones in 1968

He did not even try hard to kill bin Laden and he did everything possible to drive the American economy into the ground (thereby leading the American economy into economic dependency on globalization, which is the economic and political footprint of the New World Order ) and drove the American middle class into bankruptcy and toward extinction. He also engineered the dramatic increase in terrorist financing Afghan opium production; a project which his cult brother, John Kerry, has continued.

Chapter 4: How Skull and Bones Members Engineered Past Wars:

The American Civil War !

William Huntington Russell, the co-founder of Skull and Bones, was the primary war engineer:

William H. Russell was the chief engineer of the Civil War. Russell was also the major opium czar of the 1800s. Russell used the infamous megalomaniac, John Brown, to start the pot boiling with a phony Abolitionist mission which recruited unemployed thugs to murder,pillage and wreak mayhem from the Santa Fe Trail to Harper's Ferry, West Virginia. Russell's Skull and Bones industrialists wanted Brown to start a rebellion to overthrow the elected government of the U.S.A. and they financed all of Brown's savage attacks on innocent civilians. John Brown has long been recognized as a psychopath on the same level as Adolph Hitler yet he often went to Boston and reported directly to Russell and Russell's associates who had to approve Brown's plans and provide the vast amounts of money needed to pay the hundreds of mercenaries Brown hired. In one scene from the 1940's movie, "the Santa Fe Trail", Brown is shown at one of these meetings in Boston telling Russell directly of his plans to attack Harper's Ferry.

When Brown was caught and hung after being caught at "Harper's Ferry", Russell simply switched his financial support over to a politician he felt would serve his war engineering purposes, that was Abraham Lincoln. There is no indication that Lincoln was any more than an unknowing puppet with respect to the Civil War similar to LBJ with respect to the Vietnam War.

History has long forgotten that Jefferson Davis, Robert E. Lee and Jeb Stuart were all West Point graduates and U.S. Army officers at that time and that they as well as most other Leaders in the South planned to phase out slavery in a peaceful way that would not decimate the Southern economy, which was much more prosperous than the North at that time. But Russell wanted a war and was willing to do or say anything to make it happen. Read an excerpt of a flattering historical account of Russell's connection with John Brown: its difficult not to bust out laughing; especially when one remembers that Russell made his fortune from opium trafficking which addicted and destroyed China in the 1800s.

"Upon the repeal of the Missouri Compromise in 1854 he ( Russell ) became active as one of the leaders of the movement which resulted in the organization of the Republican party. He was a strong Abolitionist and a personal friend of John Brown and in a will which Brown made, William H. Russell was named as one of the trustees. He (Russell) was the Connecticut representative on the National Kansas (anti-slavery) committee before the war, and John Brown was many times a guest at his house.... Because he ( Russell ) wanted justice for all men he threw himself into the anti-slavery movement with all his heart," and that he "has a high and influential place among those who made the anti-slavery sentiment of the North, and especially of New England." Congress-man Sperry wrote, " If there ever was a man who labored faithfully and efficiently for the cause of the anti-slavery party and the elec-tion of Abraham Lincoln, that man was General Russell. He put his heart and soul into the cause. Those who knew him best during the days of the anti-slavery excitement and the rebellion which fol-lowed, will admit that he had no superior in loyalty, earnestness, and devotion to the cause." Believing civil war to be inevitable, he introduced, about 1840, very thorough military drill and discipline into his school to fit every pupil to serve his country in war as well as to furnish a sound education for times of peace. In 1861, at the outbreak of the Rebellion, military instructors were so difficult to obtain that even the younger boys from his school were in de-mand at the encampment as drill instructors for the new recruits for army service. It was stated that over 300 men who had been his pupils fought in the Union Army. In 1861, at the commencement of the Civil War, Governor Buckingham relied upon William H. Rus-sell, as the man best qualified by early training and knowledge of military affairs, to organize the militia of Connecticut for army service, and first by appointment of the Governor and later by act of the Legislature he was appointed Major-General. Such was his earnestness in the prosecution of the war that, it being impossible to send his five sons into the army (as he otherwise would have done), because the oldest was only about thirteen years of age, and the youngest an infant, he hired five men to represent them in the army who otherwise would not have enlisted."

Another aspect of the civil war that few Americans know about is that Lincoln's government passed a law which provided that any Northerner of draftable age could buy his way out of the fight with $500.

Thyssen Funds Found in U.S.

NEW YORK—(INS)—Existence of a $3,000,000 fund established here by Fritz Thyssen, German industrialist and original backer of Adolf Hitler was disclosed today in a news story in the New York Journal American.

The story added:

Whether the money is for Thyssen personally, or, perhaps, for some of his high-placed Nazi friends in the event of an "emergency" compelling them to leave Germany, no one knew.

However, it will do neither Thyssen nor any of his Nazi friends any good now, as it has been "frozen" along with the $4,500,000,000 Axis assets now held in this country.

Money for its $400,000 capital stock came from Thyssen's bank Voor Handel En Scheepvaart in Rotterdam.

Thyssen Funds Found in U.S.

NEW YORK—(INS)—Existence of a $3,000,000 fund established here by Fritz Thyssen, German industrialist and original backer of Adolf Hitler was disclosed today in a news story in the New York Journal American.

The story added:

Whether the money is for Thyssen personally, or, perhaps, for some of his high-placed Nazi friends in the event of an "emergency" compelling them to leave Germany, no one knew.

Among members of its board of directors are E. R. Harriman, Ray Morris and Prescott S. Bush, partners in the firm of Brown Brothers Harriman and company, of which W. Averell Harriman is now American minister plenipotentiary to England.

Also a director is H. D. Pennington, Brown Brothers Harriman and Co. manager.

On Jan. 14, 1944, Knight Wooley, another partner in the Harriman company, wrote to State Banking Superintendent William R. White in behalf of Harriman, Morris, Bush and Pennington:

The media power of the cult was so complete (e.g. Henry Luce was a member of the cult) that U.S. newspapers barely mentined the seizure and Prescott went on to be elected Senator and Harriman became Governor of New York.

Bush, South Korean President clash over Korean War

Like Tweet 0 +1 0 6 Text

ABC News' John Hendren reports from Sydney: In an awkward but polite exchange, President Bush and South Korea's President Moo Hyun Roh seemed to clash Friday over Bush's reluctance to formally end the North Korean war.

It began as a photo opportunity, with the two presidents complimenting one another and declaring progress in the six-party talks aimed at ending North Korea's nuclear program constructive. Then, things heated up. Roh (pronounced No) agreed to carry a message in an upcoming summit to North Korean leader Kim Jong Il urging him to comply with international agreements.

The exchange heated up as Roh asked the president to clarify his stance.

"I think I might be wrong," Roh said, through a translator. "I think I did not hear President Bush mention a declaration to end the Korean War, as of just now. Did you say so, President Bush."

Bush replied, "I said it's up to Kim Jong Il as to whether we can sign a peace treaty to end the Korean war. We've got to get rid of his weapons. ... And we're making progress toward that goal it's up to him."

Roh laughed politely and gave a broad smile as he answered "I believe that they are the same thing, Mr. President. If you could be a little clearer in your message."

President Bush gave an awkward chuckle, glanced at Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice, and, with a shake of the head, responded, "I can' make it any more clear Mr. President. ... That will happen when Kim Jong Il verifiably gets rid of his weapons programs and his weapons."

Harriman, Lovett and Bundy made sure that it was left as an "open war", which it still remains today. The Korean War was engineered and managed by members of the Skull and Bones cult from its inception and, as you can see from Bush's comments above, is kept open even against the wishes of the South Korean Government.

The Vietnam War:

This was the war engineered by tricks such as the"Gulf of Tonkin" hoax. The Skull and Boners who engineered the Vietnam War orchestrated the 1963 assasination of South Vietnamese President, Ngo Dình Diem to get the ball

HAROLD FORD BOOK. The CIA's Center for the Study of Intelligence (CSI) has just published a new book by AFIO member and former senior CIA officer, Harold Ford. The book, CIA and the Vietnam Policymakers: Three Episodes 1962-1968. Dr Ford, one of the most respected of CIA analysts, knows his subject. He was a Naval officer in WW2, earned a PhD from the University of Chicago and joined the Agency in 1950. Later, was a postdoctoral scholar at St Antony's College, Oxford. At the Agency he served on various Vietnam working groups, was staff chief of the Office of National Estimates and also served abroad as a Chief of Station. After leaving the CIA, Ford served five years with the Church Committee and the Senate Select Committe on Intelligence. In 1980, he rejoined the CIA and helped form the new National Intelligence Council, serving as Acting Chairman before his retirement in 1986. The study shows how the pessimistic (and most times accurate) assessments of mid-level CIA analysts were softened at best and completely obscured at worst in deference to the preconceived views of the situation a seen by key Administration officials.

This looks to be an important book -- covering such intelligence controversies as the Sam Adams OB dispute, the 1968 Tet offensive, long range estimates about Vietnam, and so on. Rueters says "CIA study blasts own Vietnam-era performance" by slanting views to suit policymakers (see below).

The book is available for purchase from the National Technical Information Service (1-800-553-6847) and has been posted on CSI's web site:

CIA AND THE VIETNAM POLICYMAKERS: Three Episodes 1962-1968, by Harold P. Ford (National Technical Information Service, $44). Mr. Ford joined CIA in 1951 and held numerous high positions before retiring in 1986. His book describes policy debates with consummate skill, but does not spare CIA in his criticism, "noting particularly how some ranking agency officers skewed estimates to tell President Johnson what he wished to hear." On the other hand, DCI John McCone was not afraid to provide candid advice. When Mr. Johnson agonized over committing more combat troops, McCone argued that for them to be effective, harsh airstrikes must be carried out against far more targets in North Vietnam than LBJ approved." LBJ disagreed, and McCone was held at arms length until he resigned.(Ed Note: But for all of us who fought in that war, how right he was!)

Another most painful episode concerns the overthrow of President Ngo Dinh Diem, advocated by a cabal in the State Department led by undersecretary Averell Harriman. William Colby, then heading the clandestine services' Far East division, advocated caution. He said, the action " appears to be throwing away bird in hand before we have adequately identified birds in the bush, o songs they may sing." But the caution was disregarded, the coup proceeded, Diem was murdered, and the South Vietnamese government became a de-stabilized and de-legitimized revolving door of nobodies. (Ed. Note -- I remember how, as a mid-level analyst, I was dumbfounded by the stupidity of this proposed action when I saw the traffic authorizing it) (from book review by AFIO member Joseph Goulden, WTimes 6 June 99, p. B6) (RoyJ)
